Intermediate Band	Music Room	3:30-4:30pm	5-9	Free	The Intermediate Band is open to students in 5th-9th Grade who have successfully and responsibly participated in Beginning Band on Flute, Clarinet, Saxophone, Trumpet or Trombone (or have learned the basics of their instrument through some other type of instruction). This ensemble is the perfect opportunity for young instrumentalists to continue to strengthen their skills and explore the challenges of making music in an ensemble. This group requires students to practice 10-20 minutes every day between weekly rehearsals, so students (and parents) need to be prepared to make this commitment in order to properly play as part of an ensemble and come to rehearsals prepared with pieces well-practiced at home each week. This ASA is a year-long commitment.	Mr. Skelton sskelton@nishimachi.ac.jp
Mini Fencing	MPR	4:00-5:00pm	1-5	15,000 yen	Students will use the plastic fencing swords and learn how to fence. They will be able to enjoy fight a duel with electric plastic swords after they master the basic moves. The club provides all equipment.	Mr. Horii khorii@nishimachi.ac.jp
MS Drama	MS Commons	3:30-4:30pm	6-9	Free	The Drama Club provides opportunities for children to perform in the musicals produced by Nishimachi each year and licensed by Music Theatre International, Broadway, which includes Disney Musicals. Learn about acting, dancing and singing and perform in our end of year musical. This ASA is a year-long commitment.	Mr. Skelton sskelton@nishimachi.ac.jp

Podcasting	Blue Bldg. 103	3:30-4:30pm	3-9	15,000 yen	NIS Podcasters are GO! Do you have stories you want to share? Are their issues you want to explore? Do you have a voice to share with the world? This new school enrichment program at will introduce students to the process of planning, scripting, recording, editing and publishing podcasts that we will share with an online audience. Students can work in groups or individually to consider topics to suit their audience, draft scripts that educate and entertain, and produce digital audio content to meet high standards. We will be drawing on a range of writing, oral language and IT skills while being thinkers, communicators and developers of quality work. Students will be encouraged to embrace the idea of dual language and respect for global audiences. Our overall goal is to produce podcasts we will share with the world, contributing our thoughts and ideas as a community of thinkers.	Ms. Hitchcock jhitchcock@nishimachi.ac.jp
Shogi (Japanese Chess)	MPR-B	4:00-5:00pm	2-9	15,000 yen	Shogi (Japanese Chess) and Western Chess are similar board games. The main purpose of both games is capturing the King. Shogi has unique rules that captured pieces will become yours and you can play them on the board again against their former teammate. Shogi is simple, however, it could be deeper and deeper by expanding the knowledge and strategy. Maximum number of students is 10.	Mr. Haruyama yharuyama@nishimachi.ac.jp
