

SOCORRO SCHOOL NEWS

KAREN KOIVISTO, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jorma Koivisto, graduated from Socorro High School in January.

Karen has a 3.3414 grade point average and ranks 26th in the senior class. She was a cheerleader for five years, a member of National Junior Honor Society, Student Council and Drama Club. She also participated in UIL one-act play competition.

AUSTIN HOLIDAY, a Socorro High School senior, learned recently that he is a finalist for a four-year naval ROTC scholarship. Austin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Holiday.

Austin ranks seventh in the senior class and has a 3.7 grade point average. He is president of the Computer Club, and is active in band, Student Council, Debate Team, Chess Club, Program for Advanced Learners (PAL) and Junior Scholars. He has been named to Who's Who and Distinguished American High School Students.

In November Austin was one of six students who received special recognition in the district's SPOTLIGHT SISD publication.

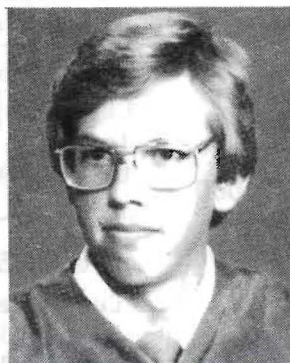

ALAN BOJORQUEZ, a ninth grader at Socorro Jr. High, was honored recently at the Youth Appreciation Banquet sponsored by the El Paso area Optimist clubs. The clubs host the banquet each year to honor students who exhibit qualities of good citizenship.
